

GEORGIA ASSOCIATION OF SCHOOL BUSINESS OFFICIALS OUTSTANDING SCHOOL BUSINESS OFFICIALS AWARD

Each year the Georgia Association of School Business Officials will recognize an outstanding GASBO member who exemplified professionalism, leadership and innovation in the field of school business management. Ken Overman, GASBO President, has established a committee to review nominees objectively and select the 2024 outstanding GASBO member. The committee will consist of Ken Overman, Cole Crowder and Byron Jones.

An Active Member of GASBO may be submitted as a nomination for the Outstanding School Business Official to the committee by submitting the following information:

- Nominees for the GASBO Outstanding Business Official Honor must be a current active GASBO member for the upcoming year (attending and paying for membership for the 2024 year) who is employed by a Georgia public school system, Georgia Department of Education or Georgia Department of Audits. The nominee may be at ANY stage of their school finance career.
- Additional information regarding the nominee, if appropriate, add on a separate sheet.
- The completed application must be submitted to the GASBO President on or before Friday, October 4, 2024.
- Three letters of recommendation will be requested after the applications are reviewed in the first phase.
- The committee reserves the right to request additional information on any nominee.
- The GASBO President will assume responsibility to notify the School Superintendent and/or family of the successful candidate and invite them to attend the presentation of the award at the 2024 GASBO Conference in Augusta, Georgia.
- The names of candidates submitted, and the selection of the successful candidate, will be kept in strict confidence.
- The successful candidate will be recognized at the April 2025 Southeastern Association of School Business Officials Annual Conference and Exhibits.
